Bear Market!

Bear Market is an Essential Process in Stock Market.

During this time almost all stock prices will crash to their value levels.

01

Who will be at Loss?

Day Traders, Margin Traders, BTST Sellers,
Short-term Investors will be at Permanent
Loss during Bear Market

Short-Term vs Long-Term Investors

Short-Term Investors consists 95% of Investors. They actually move the stock prices – they buy at high, sell at low – triggering target & stop losses.

Short-Term Investors does not gain much, but they are essential in market for the next set of people.

Their losses are permanent during a bear market.

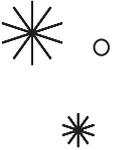

Long-Term Investors consists 5% of Investors. They are the ones actually benefitting from the stock market. Their returns can go huge like 5000% in the long term.

Long-Term Investors get high price for their holdings due to the short-termers buying more at higher levels.

Their losses are temporary as they will not be booking it.
